

Hello All:

Welcome to the Spring 2017 semester!

A few important changes have been made for MAT12/51/56(no new updates for MAT 8) for the Spring semester. Details are included in the Remedial Math Procedures memo and the updated Spring 2017 syllabi.

All the following items are also posted on the instructors' website: <http://www.bmccremmath.common.gc.cuny.edu>

Remedial Math Procedures memo

Please read this memo thoroughly. Please keep in your records for future reference.

Two calendars

4-month and 1 5-week calendar

MAT 12, MAT 51, and MAT 56 syllabi (posted in word doc and PDF form on the bmccremmath website)

- Syllabi have been updated and reflect important changes. Please read thoroughly and include changes in your syllabi if you choose to create your own.
- Syllabi also include text book options. For reduced prices, (including e-book option) can be found on the website: (copy URL exactly) <http://www.cengagebrain.com/micro/bmccmat> (If students purchase from the Webassign website or the bookstore, prices will be higher.)

MAT 56 e-book option memo- Students can purchase the e-book access code or $55. if allowing students to use the MAT 56 e-book, instructors must give students the new Spr 2017 e-book section Webassign class key(on memo). (Note that the WebAssign homework component is not required although it is included with the $55 access code)

Yahoo group membership memo -all memos are emailed to two Yahoo groups: JOIN the BMCC MATH group(for full timers) ot the the BMCC adjunct group(for adjuncts)

Technology Orientation Workshops Memo

Future memos will be emailed with details for the required departmental MAT 12 PAAE(6th week) , MAT 8 and MAT 51 Midterm Exams (7th week). (No departmental MAT 56 Midterm Exam)

Wishing you all a happy and productive semester.

Regards,
Ellen
